THE ELECTION.—Next Tuesday, November 7, will be election day, when the people of the State will be called upon to elect members of the House of Delegates and one half of the members of the Senate. The canvass throughout the State except in a few counties has been a very quiet one, as in many of the counties there is no opposition to the regular democratic nominees. In this Senatorial district Mr. Donohoe will have no opposition, and for members of the House from this city and county Mr. Hume has practically none, Mr. Loh, his opponent, not even having had his name placed on the ticket to be voted in the county. In most of the counties composing this Congressional district the democratic nominees will have little or no opposition. The vote in the State will be exceedingly small, except in a few localities where there are interesting local contests. In most places the democratic opposition is so very weak that it is not worth considering. Senator Martin and Chairman Ellyson entertain no doubt of the election of all of the democratic Senate and House candidates with the possible exception of not over 15. It is more likely, they think, that the representation among the opposition is the next General Assembly will not exceed 10.

At Tuesday's election a vote will also be had on the constitutional amendment authorizing the abolition of May elections for choosing county officers.

A vote will also be taken on the proposition to strike from the Constitution section 2 of article 10, which is as follows:

"No tax shall be imposed on any of the citizens of this State for the privilege of taking or catching oysters from their natural beds with tongs in the waters thereof; but the amount of sales of oysters so taken by any citizen, in any one year, may be taxed at a rate not exceeding the rate of taxation imposed upon any other species of property."

THE SISTERS' FAIR will open November 6. To insure its success the ladies in charge have worked nobly, leaving nothing undone that energy could effect or a generous spirit suggest. That the evenings will be attractive, entertainments will be given each evening by the best talent that can be secured, from both Alexandria and Washington.

An Irish flag will be contested for by the Hibernians of Alexandria against the Fourth Division in Washington. The members in Alexandria say the green flag will never cross the Potomac. The contest for a gun between Officers Beach and Knight promises to be a very close one. Not less interesting will be the contest among the foreman of the fire companies of the city for a fireman's hat and belt. Messrs. H. Latham and H. P. Helwig are contesting for a silver punch bowl, both have hosts of friends and the contest will undoubtedly be a close one. The most popular member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers will be voted a ring.

PROPERTY SALES.—Capt. R. F. Knox sold at auction today a lot of ground situated on the east side of Patrick street, 61 feet south of Wilkes, and fronting on Patrick street about 59 feet, with the four frame dwelling houses thereon, to Dr. George T. Klipstein for $1,350.

Miss Mary Barton has sold to Mrs. Lillie C. Reid a house and lot on the west side of Royal street, between Prince and Duke streets, and a lot on the southeast corner of Wilkes and Fayette streets for $2,500.

Mrs. Fannie B. Betts has sold to F. P. Reid a three-story brick residence on the west side of Royal street, between King and Prince, for $2,000.

INDICTED.—Mrs. Susan Owens, of King George county, against whom the grand jury of the county court, at the October term, owing to sympathy for the woman, refused to find an indictment for the burning of the storehouse and stock of goods of J. C. Nide, in August last, was yesterday indicted for the crime. She was bailed in the sum of $1,000 for her appearance at the December court. The indictment has resulted in considerable feeling between the friends of the two parties, both of whom stand well in the county.

SI PLUNKARD.—The next attraction on the program for next Wednesday at the Opera House is a rural comedy drama of Yankee farm life, entitled "Si Plunkard," and will be presented by the young character actor, J. C. Lewis, supported by his company of talented comedians. The action of the play admits of a number of novel and pleasant specialties by a company of comedians, presenting a programme of mirth, music and novelties.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Fitzhugh Lee is the guest of Mrs. P. T. Yeatman on Washington street.

The property on the southwest corner of Patrick and Cameron streets, advertised for sale at auction today by Mr. F. E. Anderson, trustee, was withdrawn without being offered.

Mrs. H. C. Phillips and son have returned home after a pleasant visit to relatives in Richmond.

Mr. Thomas Hoy is quite sick at his home on Washington street.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of Miss Grace Chase took place this morning from the Baptist Church, a large number of the friends of the deceased being present to attend the sad services, which were conducted by Rev. J. H. Butler. The pallbearers were Messrs. Charles Peake, Mahlon Milstead, Harvey Foss, Samuel Pitts, William Graves and Noble Lindsey.

THE MARKET today was only fairly well supplied with country produce and prices were rather higher than those of last week. Many of the summer vegetables have entirely disappeared from the benches, while others are scarce. The butchers had large supplies of fresh meats and the fish benches were fairly well stocked.

THE WEATHER.—The rain of yesterday was followed by clearing weather last night, the wind in the meantime shifting to northwesterly and the temperature becoming much cooler. This morning there was a heavy frost and it is said that thin ice formed in exposed places. Today has been bright, cool and bracing.

LIEUTENANT LOVE.—As heretofore stated First Lieutenant James M. Love, Twenty-first United States Infantry, has been selected to fill temporarily the position of acting Adjutant General of the District of Columbia militia and he will report for duty in a day or two. Until he does so, Captain Alfred P. Robbins, aide-de-camp on the brigade staff who has held the position on numerous occasions heretofore, will officiate as acting Adjutant General. Lieutenant Love, who is Adjutant General of the militia, was wounded in the right arm at Calamba on August 1 last, and was ordered home on detached service. A strenuous effort is to be made in a short time to have Colonel Theodore Mosher, now on the retired list as a major, detailed permanently as adjutant general of the District militia.

Story of a Slave.
To be bound hand and foot by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work. This sure remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggist."

You never know what form of blood poison will follow consumption. Keep the liver clean by using Dr. Williams' Little Early Risers and you will avoid trouble. They are famous little pills for constipation and liver and bowel troubles. Edgar Wardfield, Jr., corner King and Pitt streets.

While at work this morning painting the Adams school building in Washington Henry Parker, a painter, fell from a scaffold suspended thirty feet from the ground and was instantly killed.

Messrs. Walter Atlee and Charles Ball of Washington and W. F. H. Fink of this city have been selected to conduct the examination of candidates for the position of City Engineer, to be held on Friday next.
